

Leader of Tomorrow Award Nomination Form

(for youth grades 10-12)

The Leader of Tomorrow Award is intended to recognize a high school student, in the state of Oklahoma, that exhibits characteristics and actions that would make them an OCC Leader in the making. The ideal recipient will show commitment in living a life of faith, showing care of their neighbor, and a passion for the work of justice. This award is for students in grades 10-12, during the 2018-2019 school year, and is open to any faith tradition. The chosen recipient will receive a $500 scholarship and four free tickets to the OCC Annual Dinner on Thursday, November 8th, where the award will be presented. All nominations are due by August 15, 2018.
